GREAT BRITAIN IS FACING A SERIOUS COTTON SHORTAGE

NEW YORK, N. Y.—Reports from Galveston that the British government had fixed a cotton freight rate of $2 per hundred pounds, coupled with the information that Great Britain was facing a serious cotton shortage, caused an advance of several points on the local exchange.

The English shortage is attributed to the difficulty in securing adequate shipping facilities.

Ocean freight brokers believe, however, that if any limitation in rates is contemplated by Great Britain it will be applied first to foodstuffs. An order is now reported to force that British vessels must carry a certain percentage of grain in their cargo and this has helped to restrict exports of cotton from southern ports.

Four families at Rumford, Me., were forced to move into a howling snow storm when damage estimated at $6,000 was caused by a fire which broke out in a large wooden block.
